Council Of Pahokee Will Ask SRD For Road Improvement

Members of the Pahokee City Council in regular meeting Monday night voted unanimously to ask the State Road Department in Fort Lauderdale to make improvements on Main Street from Lake Avenue in Pahokee to the north city limits.

Type of improvement was left up to the State Road Department because they will have the final say anyhow. County Commissioner Paul Rardin was an invited guest at the Council meeting and the Council asked him to see that the resolution requesting the work be taken to the SRD meeting in March.

Asked about street improvements in Pahokee by the state and county, Com. Rardin told of proposed construction of Larrimore Road from the Pure Oil Station north to the railroad. Condemnation proceedings are now underway on plans to secure right-of-way for this project, the commissioner said.

Another widely heralded improvement in the immediate future is the rebuilding of Rardin Avenue from Bacom Point Road through the Negro section of B. Street where the road will turn and approach the old Belle O. Road. This street and Larrimore Road will be built on a right-of-way with curb and sidewalks, Com. Rardin pointed out. Both streets will be vast improvements over existing streets serving the two areas.

Bacom Point Road from the city park southward for one mile will also be improved in the state-county program, the commissioner told the councilmen. The new mile of street will be patterned after the present Bacom Point road in front of the post office.

Frost Kills Corn Early Monday A. M.

One of those unexpected frosts slipped into the Glades farming area bright and early Monday morning and took its toll of tender sweet corn. Many hundreds of acres of corn fell before the devastating killing frost.

On the Townsite in Canal Point ice formed on windshields for the second time in the past quarter of a century. At one home it was necessary to get a kettle of hot water to melt the ice on the windshield before the windshield wiper would work on one car.

Fast action was taken by most of the corn growers. Early the morning of the frost discs were busy discing up the corn and later that afternoon some of the fields had been replanted. Maybe, thousands of acres of corn will come in at the same time this spring. And, that won't be good for the price.

Paul Rardin Seeks Re-election To Palm Beach County Board

County Commission Vice Chairman Paul Rardin of Canal Point said last night that he will be a candidate for re-election in the upcoming primary election on May 5, Com. Rardin represents the Fifth commissioner's district of Palm Beach County which is comprised of all the area west of Twenty-Mile Bend. He is a Democrat.

The Glades Commissioner is serving his fifth four-year term on the county board and was re-elected four years ago without opposition from his own party — Democratic — or the Republican party. Com. Rardin has served as chairman of the board three times and the first of this year was named vice chairman of the commission which is controlled by three Republican members. He is in line for the chairmanship next year.

Through the years Com. Rardin has served the people of the county, he said he had been an ardent supporter of movements for progressive growth of the area, he represents and the entire county as well. Roads are of prime importance in the Glades area now that sugar cane has become one of the major crops. The commissioner pointed out that he has secured for the fifth district many farm-to-market county roads and several more are either in the process of planning or ready for bids to be received for construction.

Com. Rardin was chairman of the board when the people of the county issued an ultimatum through a straw ballot to leave Palm Beach International Airport where it is and improve it. He said he has followed this directive and a few months ago was the prime mover of motions to start complete rehabilitation of the airport and to construct a new terminal to replace the inadequate one at FPIA today.

In commenting upon his candidacy for re-election, Com. Rardin said: "I honestly believe that my experience on the county board is an important factor of my candidacy for re-election. I know the needs of the Glades section of Palm Beach County, and those who have followed my career in politics know that I have always fought for those things which this area rightfully deserves. Roads, bridges, Glades Office Building, county barn, two health department buildings, parks and genuine consideration of county problems have all been foremost in my thoughts and accomplishments."

"Sick and indigent of the county have always been given their fair share of consideration and care by our board. Today we are completing the first increment of a many-phase hospital at the County Home location and it will be dedicated in a few days. This new hospital for the unfortunate, two children's homes and the county home for the aged and infirm occupy a great deal of the board's time and I am happy to be able to be of service to those who are unable to look out for themselves. "In placing my candidacy for re-election before the people of the county, I ask that they consider my experience as a former state legislator, at which time I became thoroughly acquainted with the passing of laws under which the county board operates, and my years of experience as a servant of the taxpayers of Palm Beach County on the county commission. After due consideration of these matters I shall be greater for, one and all who see fit to cast their lot in behalf of my candidacy to re-election on May 5."

The Glades commissioner has been honored many times during his political career with honors from high places, such as being chosen unanimously to be president of the State Association of County Commissioners, a member of the roads and highways committee of the National Association of County Officials, president of the Pahokee Rotary Club and many others. Asked recently which honor he cherished most highly, the commissioner beamed and said: "The night that Mrs. Rardin and I were made life members of the Canal Point Parent-Teachers Association by unanimous vote of our friends and neighbors."

Pahokee Marches Onward With Whopping Vote In Favor Sanitary Sewers

The City of Pahokee seems to have hit its stride after many years of sleeping while other cities progressed with the jet age. This week the City took another forward step when its citizens authorized the Council through a straw vote to install sanitary sewers. This move has been made by other cities dozens and dozens of years ago.

Only one-fourth of the qualified voters went to the polls Tuesday but their overwhelming vote in favor of the sewers told the world that Pahokee is now on the march — to a progressive future. Out of 349 votes cast there were 311 in favor of the movement. Now, the Council can proceed with the assurance that the citizens are behind the movement.

Immediately after the polls closed, the City Council held a special meeting to receive the referendum returns. During the meeting, council:

—Made a motion to start validating procedures for the $1,370,000 worth of bonds they will issue for the construction and installation of a sewer treatment plant, distribution lines and for water-

Favorable Answer To Jaycee Request

Two requests from the Pahokee Jaycees for use of the county's airport at Pahokee were given favorable action Monday by the county commission at the request of Commissioner Paul Rardin of Canal Point.

The Jaycees asked use of the port for an airshow and seminar to be held March 14 and 15 and for the annual Harvest Festival to be held April 16 thru 19.

Building Permit Is Issued To A&P Co.

Keen Real Estate announced Wednesday that the City of Pahokee has issued a building permit for a new Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company store to be erected in Pahokee on a lot across from the Elks Club.

W. G. Lassiter and Company of West Palm Beach are the contractors, Mrs. Keen said. The permit, including the building and paving amounts to $110,000.00.

Contractor Lassiter told The Everglades News that test piling were driven on Wednesday of this week and that actual construction should get underway not later than the middle of next week.

—Authorized Daytona Beach waterworks engineers Russell and Axon to proceed with advertisement for the installation of sewer lines on Rardin Avenue. The council wants lines installed there before the county begins its proposed improvements of the Avenue.

—Awarded a one-year contract for the operation of Pahokee Harbor and Breakwater concession stands to Mrs. Tochie Berry.

Pahokee Dock Will Get Aid From The Port Of Palm Beach

If plans perfected on Wednesday of this week work out, the Pahokee Dock will get some material assistance from the Port of Palm Beach in rehabilitating the present dock for future use by those who wish to ship by barge from this area. This possible assistance was talked about when two port commissioners and Port Manager Wilcox visited Pahokee Wednesday.

Present plans call for the Port of Palm Beach to erect a retaining wall and for the contractor on the dike work to fill in behind it for a distance of 200 feet north of the present dock. The basin will be deepened so that barges can enter, load and leave without scraping bottom. The plan is a good one and will be a great help when successfully concluded.

Bids Too High On Road Job So County Will Do The Work

The county commission this week rejected two bids for improvement of a road intersection in the Glades and authorized that the work be done by county employees.

The project was improvement of an intersection of SR 15 and the Bryan Sugar Mill Road. The two bids received ranged as high as four times the estimated cost of $3,300.

Commissioner Paul Rardin suggested the county do the work and reject the bids.

In another set of bids, Cleary Brothers Construction Co., West Palm Beach, appeared to be the low bidder for construction of a bridge over a drainage canal on the Old Dixie Highway between Delray Beach and Boca Raton. Cleary Brothers price was $58,846.15—lowest of eight bids.

Funds for the project will be paid by the Central and South Florida Flood Control District.

Winn-Dixie Group On Glades Visit

A group of Winn-Dixie grocery people were in the Glades last week to see and gather first hand information in regard to production and harvesting of winter vegetables. Winn-Dixie, owners of Kwik Chek Stores, are large buyers of Glades vegetables, according to Bill Brown who represents the concern locally.

Last Friday the group flew into the Pahokee airport and were met there with cars for the Glades inspection. J. A. Adams, who is in charge of all perishables for Winn-Dixie, was among those coming. Others were: J. C. Koon in charge of all produce and other merchandisers representing the eight warehouses scattered throughout the southeast.

In the group were others such as the carlot buyer, the citrus buyer, and three produce transportation specialists.

The entire group visited the Duda celery operation, the Sam Senter radish operation and returned to the Lake Okeechobee Farmers Cooperative in Canal Point where local producers had prepared a display of Glades products for their inspection. A picnic lunch was enjoyed on the Lofcoop plantation.

During the afternoon other inspections were made before the group took their plane to Pompano where they made like inspection before proceeding to Homestead Saturday for further visitation of farm areas.

Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

A circuit court suit in which the county seeks to upset a legislative act providing that Lake Okeechobee be split among five bordering counties, is underway this week at Tallahassee.

The trial started Wednesday and was expected to be completed by the end of the week.

Witnesses scheduled to be called by the county included Engineer George Brookway, West Palm Beach and Engineer W. Turner Wallis, Tallahassee; State Sen. Ralph Blank and Rep. Emmett Roberts.

County Attorney Harry Johnston, Monday, was given authority to call any other witnesses necessary to present the county's case.

In other action this week, the county board:

Transferred $10,000 from the road and bridge fund to the airport fund in payment of right of way needed to four-lane Belvedere Road adjacent to Palm Beach International Airport.

Adopted a resolution authorizing agreements to be made with municipalities for the county to act as coordinator for future planning programs undertaken by the communities.

Heard that the Seaboard Railroad plans to improve a grade crossing—the Lake Ida crossing near Delray Beach.

Cut back a $15,000 budget for volunteer fire department to $12,500, the amount which can be legally committed to aid the fire fighters.

Approved the bond of J. Leroy Croft, Delray Beach, who has been named a commissioner for the Southeastern Hospital District.

Trucks And Buses To Canada Free

TALLAHASSEE — Florida and the Canadian province of Alberta have signed an agreement that opens the borders of each to the trucks and buses of the other. Chairman Ed Mason of the Florida Public Utilities Commission has announced.

It is the first such arrangement between Florida and a foreign province, Mason said. But Florida has such agreements with 33 states.

All fees and taxes, except regular license and fuel taxes are waived, Mason said, under terms of the arrangement. Trucks carrying Florida produce and products have been subject to Alberta's taxes, sometimes amounting to several hundred dollars on a single vehicle, and mileage taxes have been charged to Alberta trucks operating in Florida.

The arrangement, which was first approved by the Motor Vehicle Commission, the State Road Dept., and the Public Utilities Commission, was signed by Gov. Bryant and Alberta's Minister of Highways Gordon E. Taylor.

Trucks taking produce and the products of Florida industry into market areas benefit especially from reciprocal agreements, Mason said. "This is our first success in Canada," he continued. "We hope that the Alberta arrangement will be followed by several others."

WARREN APPOINTED

County Commissioner George Warren, Delray Beach, was named Monday to be the commission's representative on the board of directors for the Palm Beach County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Miss Nina Moon has returned to her home in Atlanta, Ga. after a visit with her cousins, Mrs. Matie Chastain and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pope.

New Emblem Plan Of Joint Groups

The Federal Land Bank Association of Miami and the Farmers Production Credit Association will put new corporate identification emblems into use on March 1, according to announcement by Chas. B. Long, Jr., manager of the FLBA, and PCA.

On the same day, other organizations of the Farm Credit System throughout the nation will also put the new corporate identification program into effect. These include Federal Land Banks and Federal Land Bank Association, Federal Intermediate Credit Banks and Production Credit, Associations, and Banks for Cooperatives. Farmers and their cooperatives borrow $5.6 billion a year through this system.

The new Federal Land Bank Association emblem is a deep blue oval, the new Production Credit Association emblem is a brilliant red oval, and the Banks for Cooperatives will be identified by a metallic gold oval.

The overall emblem for the Farm Credit System is also an oval. The pillars of its illustration represent the three banking groups, the roof signifies the uniting service objective, and the solid foundation symbolizes the strong financial base of the system. The oval of this emblem is enclosed by the words, "Farm Credit Service."

"Up to the present," Mr. Long said, "banks and associations of the system have used a variety of emblems. As a result there was little indication that our institutions are related and have closely correlated purposes, objectives, and goals. Actually, this close relationship is the source of much of our strength in providing sound credit for farmers."

Behind these emblems are remarkable credit institutions, deeply rooted in the history of American agriculture. The farmer-owned Federal Land Bank Associations have served farmers for 47 years with long-term land bank loans to refinance debts and purchase and improve farms. The Federal Intermediate Credit Banks, established in 1923, supply loans funds for local farmer-owned Production Credit Associations. The Production Credit Associations make short-term production loans and intermediate-term loans for capital purposes to farmers, and the Banks for Cooperatives provide specialized credit service to farmer-owned cooperatives.

Funds loaned by the banks and associations are obtained by the banks from the sale of bonds and debentures on the public market to private investors.

The Federal Land Bank Association of Miami was founded in 1917. Today it has 48 members and $3,465,000 in loans outstanding.

The Federal Land Bank Association of Miami, along with 45 other associations in Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, and South Carolina own and act as agent for The Federal Land Bank of Columbia.

The Farmers Production Credit Association and 76 other associations in the same four-state area are served by the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Columbia.

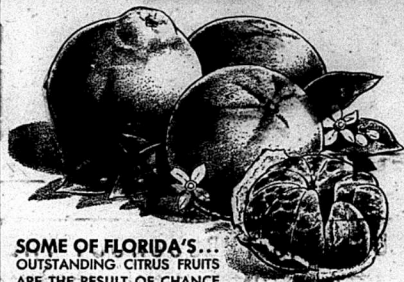

The Farmers PCA was established in 1933. Today, it has 469 members and has $12,500,000 in loans outstanding. Area farmers borrowed $15 million from the association in 1963.

Nationally, nearly 380,000 farmers have loans outstanding from the Federal Land Banks through the 756 Federal Land Bank Associations for over $3 billion. Farmers borrow $3.6 billion a year in short and intermediate-term credit from the 484 PCAs in the nation.

"Our new corporate identification program will become a nationally known farmer-owned trademark," Mr. Long pointed out. "It reflects our modernization in farm credit methods to keep pace with the needs of modern farming in this community."

Mrs. O. B. McClure is a patient in the local hospital.

Busy Schedule For Co. Commissioners

County Commissioners this week are facing a busy schedule of conferences involving county affairs, a schedule that will carry over into March.

On the agenda this week was an administrative session with the board members slated to discuss a variety of airport activities which included a discussion of construction plans for a new terminal.

On March 5th the board is scheduled to meet at the airport with airline representatives—again for a discussion on the terminal.

On March 11, Commission Chairman Edward Bandlow has called an administrative session at which time the commission will set out projects for the 1964-65 road program.

A week later, the primary and secondary road program will be taken to Ft. Lauderdale for presentation to the State Road Department.

Because of the Ft. Lauderdale meeting, the commission this week set their time of their regular commission meeting on March 23 for 9:30 a. m. in order to make the afternoon conference with road board officials.

In addition and at times not yet announced the county board members are planning to meet with West Palm Beach officials for a discussion of mutual road building programs. Another conference is to be scheduled to consider the possibility of adding an additional story to the Health and Welfare building to provide more office space for county activities housed in the building.

Miss Florida To Be Chosen For 1964

Can Canal Point provide a Miss Florida, or possibly Miss America? If so, it would be an historic as well as a magnificent victory, for not since the famed Miss America pageant was begun in 1921, no Florida girl has ever been crowned.

A Canal Point girl, not under 18 (as of Sept. 1) nor older than 28, desirous of entering the Palm Beach County contest for the Miss Florida should write to Pageant, Box 3588, Lantana, Fla., or telephone 585-1707.

The Lake Worth Civitan Club, Everett Nowlin, President is sponsoring the 1964 Miss Palm Beach County event, with Lowell Bailey, Lantana photographer as pageant director and Civitan general chairman. Bailey said a few sponsorships of girls are still open for clubs, organizations or businesses desiring to assist an entrant. A field of some 25 contenders for the title is expected in the contest scheduled April 5-6 for the Royal Poinciana Playhouse, Palm Beach.

Haydon Burns Asks Governor's Job

Haydon Burns, a leader among the gubernatorial candidates in 1960, qualified in Tallahassee for the 1964 race with an appeal to citizens of all walks for their "consideration and help in enabling me to become a governor for all Florida."

The 51-year old business man and public administrator, who has served Jacksonville for 15 successive years as mayor during the city's greatest growth, immediately set out to carry his campaign to the people of the state.

"In formally qualifying and establishing this candidacy for governor, I call on all citizens of all walks and economic levels for their consideration and help. It will be necessary that I continue to get grass roots support if I am to be successful in providing leadership for our state as the governor for All-Florida," Burns said in Tallahassee.

"Judging from the reception I have received thus far from all over the state, it is evident that I am recognized as an All-Florida candidate."

Burns indicated his theme as he qualified at noon. "In government as in business sound planning, purposeful financing and prudent administration can be a reality only through strong progressive leadership. I know this formula will work for all Florida as it has done in Jacksonville.

"Our record of proven progress is spelled out in terms of glistening skyscrapers, attractive new industries, added payrolls and modern expressways that are the envy of cities throughout our nation."

"In return for your support," Burns pledged to the voters of Florida, "I promise you, and every citizen of Florida the same dedicated leadership, cooperation and business judgment as has been demonstrated during these past 15 years of privileged service in one of Florida's highest public offices."

To supporters and the press, Burns explained his experience gained as mayor of Jacksonville, with its own particular form of government, has prepared him for the governor's chair more specifically than any other candidate.

Boyd Vorhees, Jr., left this week for Seattle, Wash., on his return trip to Kodiack, Alaska after a 37 day leave spent with his wife and parents. Mrs. Vorhees will remain in Pahokee with his parents and visit her parents in Tampa.

Soil District To Be Voted On Mar. 4

There will be a Referendum on the creation of Soil Conservation District, composed of all of Broward and Palm Beach Counties with the exception of lands in the corporate limits of cities on the Eastern boundary of the two counties.

It is required by the Soil Conservation Act of Florida that a referendum be held in this area to determine the wishes of land owners on the organization of such a District.

The date of the Referendum will be March 4, 1964 and the polls will remain open from 8:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m. The polling places will be the Glades Office Building at Belle Glade, Florida; the Lake Worth Drainage District office, Military Trail, Delray Beach, Florida, and the Pompano Farmers' Market-Lobby at Pompano Beach, Florida.

Eligible voters will be landowners who own land within the territory described in his notice.

Mrs. Gary Sammons and sons, Craig and Jeff of Tallahassee, are the guests of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Guthrie.

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

One of the main themes at Christian Science churches this Sunday will be from John (1:17): "The law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ."

The Bible Lesson on "Christ Jesus" will also include this selection from the Christian Science textbook: "Christianity as Jesus taught it was not a creed, nor a system of ceremonies, nor a special gift from a ritualistic Jehovah; but it was the demonstration of divine Love casting out error and healing the sick, not merely in the name of Christ, or Truth, but in demonstration of Truth, as must be the case in the cycles of divine light" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 135).

Let Your Money Earn 4 1/2% Payable Semi-Annual

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new  $3\frac{3}{4}\%$  interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to  $2\frac{1}{4}\%$  for the first year and a half; then a guaranteed 4% each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra  $\frac{1}{2}\%$  from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my E Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your E Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic  $\frac{1}{2}\%$  increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).

H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you name automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for science. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.

YOU SAVE MORE THAN MONEY WITH

Former Sheriff Taylor Makes Bid In May Primary

Clinton E. (Red) Taylor, Director of Operations for the Florida State Turnpike Authority and a former captain of the Florida Highway Patrol, Thursday, announced his candidacy for sheriff of Palm Beach County.

Taylor, who in 1962 served an interim appointment by the governor as sheriff, has had more than 21 years experience in Florida law enforcement.

The 46 year old Democratic candidate became a Highway Patrol officer in 1949 after majoring in accounting at the University of Florida and John B. Stetson University. He was born in DeLand, Florida, where he attended high school.

From 1942 to 1946, Taylor served in the U. S. Coast Guard as a Chief Specialist in the Intelligence Service. On his return to the Highway Patrol he was promoted to sergeant and a year later became a lieutenant.

In 1949, Taylor was promoted to the Patrol headquarters in Tallahassee where he served as Administrative Assistant to the Director of Public Safety, as well as Safety Officer and Public Information Officer.

Following graduation from the Police Administration Long Course at Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill., Taylor was promoted to Captain of the Florida Highway Patrol in 1953.

In 1956, he was made Commander of the Turnpike Troop in charge of traffic enforcement for the Florida Turnpike Authority, also serving as Safety Director, Communications Officer and Transportation Officer for the Authority.

Taylor was appointed Director of Operations for the Turnpike in January, 1961, and a year later officially retired as a captain of the Highway Patrol to devote full time to the increasing responsibilities of the Turnpike job.

Recently, Taylor received a public commendation from the Turnpike for his work in organizing and operating the Turnpike Patrol and for his services as Director of Operations. In the latter position he was responsible for administration of an annual budget in excess of $1,500,000 and was in charge of a staff of more than 270 employees.

For the past 10 years, the Florida born candidate has officially represented the state in several nation organizations concerned with highway safety and law enforcement. He was State Safety Coordinator of the National Safety Council and chairman of that organization's Safety Coordinators group for 14 Southeastern states.
